Friends In Need

On Monday, November 14th there will be a ministry meeting at 9 a.m., in the high school youth room. The goal of this ministry is to provide a social connection to individuals who would benefit from a visit from a fellow parishioner. This ministry, through volunteer effort, visits residences, nursing facilities and other home situations of parish members. Reasons for visits range from providing spiritual support, to a friendly visit, to someone who just wants to make a new friend. The goal is to offer parishioners an encounter with other parishioners to experience God’s goodness through the kindness of others. If this meeting time conflicts with your schedule but you want to be involved, please contact Joni, 830-2875.

In his first letter to the Corinthians, St. Paul talks about life after death with the simple phrase, “we shall be changed” (15:51-52). In the Nicene Creed, we “look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.” This is the hope of our faith: Even in death, our communion with God cannot be severed. But what will life after death be like? That’s the question that the Sadducees had trouble answering. It’s important to know that the concept of resurrection was a fairly recent development in Jesus’ time. The idea was disputed. The Sadducees did not believe in resurrection; the Pharisees did. The Sadducees were trying to trip Jesus up with their question about multiple marriages. They clung to the notion that life after death would be exactly like life on earth. Thus, the practical issues would present insurmountable problems. Jesus was not fooled; he tells them that when God raises us up, we will come fully into our identities as children of God.

God has revealed much about life after death since then. We know we will stand before God when we die and face his judgment and mercy. We know we will be able to turn our backs on God (hell) or turn toward him (heaven). We know that for many, purification (purgatory) will be part of that process. Afterward, our loving union with God will remain eternally. Perhaps that truth will inspire greater faith, hope, and witness here and now.

Dear Padre

Can a non-Catholic become a saint?

Q Are non-Catholics eligible to be named saints?

“The cause of beatification and canonization regards a Catholic who in life, in death and after death has enjoyed a reputation of holiness by living all the Christian virtues in an heroic manner” (Sanctorum Mater, 4.1). In this process, the Catholic Church not only investigates the heroic virtues of a candidate, but confirms miracles attributed to them after their death, and ultimately declares a person to be a saint in heaven and worthy of veneration.

Moreover, the process is ecclesial: it is executed by the Catholic Church for the holiness of its members. “By canonizing some of the faithful, i.e., by solemnly proclaiming that they practiced heroic virtue lived in fidelity to God’s grace, the Church recognizes the power of the Spirit of holiness within her and sustains the hope of believers by proposing the saints to them as models and intercessors” (CCC 828).

While there are non-Catholic saints worthy of canonization, the Church does not presume to canonize members of other churches (should they even be presented for validation); rather, the Church favors candidates who are in the same full communion of faith as the Catholics whose understanding of saints look to them as intercessors. As Kenneth Woodward wrote in Making Saints, “Catholic saints make sense only within a world where the ‘body of Christ’ is more than just a metaphor.”

Dear holy souls in purgatory, through the burning fire of God’s sweet love, you are transformed and cleansed. Just as Jesus turned ordinary water into a fine wine, he is changing you and preparing you for heaven. What joy you must feel because you are moving closer and closer to Jesus! Holy souls in purgatory, pray for us, that we may live lives worthy of our heavenly reward. Amen.
